This attempt at physical therapy is the seventh attempt.
oops! I forgot one! The seventh time and the best!

Dr Davis directed me to APRN, and slowly began to realize where I was and what was being offered to me. Lets start with Dan Sandy - he has been professional, patient and compassionate. He and are all of his crew, while being kind + patient, pay attention to how I was doing steps - leading me to do my best.

They never let my routines get boring. Best best of all, I think they really care!

APRN is the best!
